

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MARCH 27, 1861.

REMOVAL.—On the 1st of April, the "Raftsmen's Journal" office will be removed to the second story of Graham's new brick building, on Market street, nearly opposite the Mansion House.

LOOK OUT.—Most of our subscribers are prompt payers; but we have a few who are tardy or indifferent in this respect. "After rating" the names of good subscribers only will be retained on our list, and orders for new subscriptions will have to be accompanied by the Cash.

RESIGNED.—Mr. John Owens, Post Master at Bloomfield, in this county, has requested us to state that he has resigned said office.

WINDOW BLINDS.—Read the advertisement of G. W. Zimmerman, of Philadelphia, relating to the removal of his place of business.

A STRAY SACK.—A sack was found at or near the Apple-hole on the premises of Wm. R. Curry, in Pike township, on the morning of the 23d March. The owner is requested to call, prove property and take it away. It.

A. M. HILLS desires to notify his friends and patrons that he will be in his office in Clearfield, (opposite the Clearfield House,) until after the June Court, with the exception of the second week in May. Persons desiring his services will do well to call before that time. February 27th, 1861-6t.

CLEARFIELD CREEK BRIDGE.—No doubt many of our readers will be gratified to learn, that the bridge over Clearfield creek east of this place has been repaired, and that persons traveling or hauling between Clearfield and Tyrone, can pass and repass with safety.

CHILD BURNED.—On Sunday evening the 17th March, a little son of Patrick Gallagher of Boggs township, aged one year and two days, was burnt so badly that he died in a few hours. Mrs. Gallagher had gone out doors a few moments to do some work, and during her short absence the child's clothes caught fire, but in what way is not known.

THE WEATHER, &c.—On last Wednesday night about five inches of snow fell; but, on Friday, the warm rays of the sun dissipated it so cautiously, as not to create a rise in the streams. At present it is cloudy and has the appearance of rain, and a flood may be expected by Easter, unless the weather-prophets and medical almanacs agree to disagree, and postpone it for an indefinite time.

N. B. Some little rain is falling this morning, and the prospect for a flood is favorable.

RAIL ROAD ELECTION.—At a meeting of the Stockholders in the "Phillipsburg and Waterford Railroad Company," held at their office in the Borough of Clearfield on Monday the 18th day of March, the following officers were unanimously elected: President, Hon. G. R. BARRETT. Directors, James T. Leonard, Jas. B. Graham, John Patton, Wm. M. Briddle, L. J. Crans, S. B. Row, Richard Mossop, C. Kratzer, C. L. Lamberton, Jacob Black, I. G. Gordon, and K. L. Blood. On the organization of the Board of Directors, Hon. John Patton was re-elected Vice President, Hon. James T. Leonard, Treasurer, and L. J. Crans, Sec.

REMOVAL.—On Friday last, Messrs. Graham, Barton & Co., removed their store into the new brick building of James B. Graham, Esq., on Market street, where they are now preparing to accommodate all who may favor them with their custom. The room they now occupy is the largest and best finished store-room in the place, and Mr. Graham deserves great praise for his energetic efforts in making good and permanent improvements. And as there exists a great demand for houses, we hope that other affluent citizens will endeavor to emulate his worthy example, by erecting buildings that will be a credit to our borough.

NORTH ALABAMA.—We clip the following from The Tusculum North Alabama: "Our neighbor of The Constitution rather pettishly suggests that if the editor of The Alabama is not satisfied with the government of the new Confederacy he had better leave it. If all were to leave who are dissatisfied, we fear the balance would soon have to be left on whom they could safely rely for self-protection. It is a remarkable fact, and why it is so we know not, that the substantial, physical force of the country—the hard-fisted, hard-working men everywhere, who are expected to do all the fighting when their country calls—were, from the beginning, opposed to the ordinance of Secession, and are becoming daily more and more dissatisfied with it. For while they were disposed to acquiesce, but as they watch the further developments of this measure, the muttering thunders of their indignation cannot be longer suppressed.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS

Coming on—moving day.
One great advantage of Fort Sumpter—it can never get out of water.
The worst kind of tax on man's temper—tacks left sticking up inside his boots.

Should be cautious—young men, about making remarks when walking after a lady on the street.

Prince Napoleon is about to proceed to Turin to negotiate for the withdrawal of the French troops from Rome.

The North American says the Sunbury & Erie Railroad will be opened through to Erie during the present year.

There are four hundred and sixty-four thousand colored people attached to the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South.

The Philadelphia banks resumed specie payments on Monday last. There never was sufficient cause for their suspension.

Since the 15th of December last the sum of $13,329,455 in specie has been imported into the United States from Europe.

The papers of the eastern commercial cities speak in a cheerful and encouraging tone of the prospects of the spring business just opening.

Why is South Carolina like a mattress? Because it is full of woolly hair that must be kept down, while the whole concern is supported on tick.

The banks of Poland having refused to make specie payments on the Russian bonds, the military took possession of the amount required from the bank vault.

An exchange paper suggests that this being the time for twigs to shoot, it might as well very well, in view of the treason of a well known officer, to shoot Twigs.

A Southern paper compares Mr. Crittenden and Jeff. Davis. We have no doubt that Mr. Crittenden is as earnestly devoted to his country as Jeff. Davis is to himself.

Barnum has opened a branch of his world renowned museum in Philadelphia. His curiosities are numerous, but among them is not to be found the rara avis of the age—an honest secessionist.

Intelligence from California excites apprehension as to the safety of the public property in that State, owing to defection among the leading army officers. Col. Johnston may be suspended.

The Evening Post advises an extra session of Congress to repeal the Morrill Tariff. The chances of repeating it at a regular session are so poor that its adversaries do well to call for an extra.

Composition of the "Southern Heart" according to the Confederate Standard.—One part each; salt-petre, gun cotton and rifle whiskey. Necessary to set it off: The first drop of blood shed in coercion.

The Hartford Courant recalls the circumstance that the Columbian, published in that city nineteen years ago, in speaking of the great Gaines case, decided a few days since, said that the decision would not probably be given for two weeks.

The disunion papers in the North call the new tariff, the Black Tariff, because it imposes a duty of fifty-four per cent. on cotton goods. Give these gentry free trade and a free chance to steal the public money, and they will be satisfied.

Upon a full investigation of the state of the Treasury, Secretary Chase became satisfied that $80,000,000 would carry him through the fiscal year. He has accordingly advertised for that amount of the last authorized loan. Capitalists say that it will be taken at par.

Louisiana has a fancy block of marble at the Washington monument, to enter into the construction of that barbarous pile, with the following inscription on its side: "Presented by the State of Louisiana—ever faithful to the Constitution and the Union." A beautiful and appropriate grave stone that will make.

THE METHODIST CHURCH, SOUTH.—Parson Brownlow says: "We have been a member of the Methodist Church for the last thirty-six years and will have all that time felt a lively interest in all that affected her interest, and we still do. But if she concludes as a Church, to become the champion of Secessionists, and to engage in the hell-begotten work of breaking up this Government, we have no further use for such an organization. The Book concerns of the Methodist Churches, North and South, in Canada and in England; all the Bishops and leading members in the church, and the Christian Advocate, south of Mason and Dixon's line can never drag us into any such wicked scheme as that of breaking up the Government under which churches and religious societies of all kinds have prospered for near a century. The preservation of this Union is of infinitely more importance than all the book, tract, missionary, literary and other concerns of all the sects in America. If the eyes of the people of the seceding States have been so blinded by the last thirty-six years, that they can see no good in anything connected with the Constitution and the Union handed down to us by our fathers; neither the labors of ministers, the teaching of book concerns, or the grace of God can prepare them for a better world than the Southern Confederacy. Leave all such sectional bigots where they are, and let them work out their damnation with greediness. . . . Indeed, it is to be regretted that leading ministers of different churches in the South are on the stump, advocating secession, denouncing the Union, and uttering treasonable sentiments which merit hanging.

TRADE IN FROGS AND SNAILS.—There are one or two articles of commerce in Switzerland which we are sure no Englishman or American ever thought of "trading in;" and yet which might be made profitable perhaps, for the markets bring forth as abundantly there as here. Catholics not being allowed to eat meat on Fridays and various other days in the year, and Catholics being many in the land, all manner of fish are in great demand. Frogs and snails belong to the genus fish, and are collected in great numbers for cloisters, monks being among those who preach, but do not practice, fasting. It is not necessary to enjoin the peasants to deny themselves meat, as they seldom eat it except on Sundays. Snails are fattened in gardens on certain kinds of leaves, and one may hear the chattering of their teeth as they eat, in passing by. From Zurich they are exported to Italy in the autumn. It is only frogs' legs that are eaten, and formerly they used to catch them and cut off their legs, leaving the animal to die a painful and cruel death. In a period of forty thousand snails, and thirty-six thousand pairs of frogs' legs.—Collage of the Alps.

Mrs. Grace Crawford, aged 107 years, died in Charleston recently.

COLLECTION OF THE REVENUE.—It is said that the Attorney General, Mr. Bates, has given the opinion to President Lincoln, that the revenue cannot be collected, except under the law of 1793, which renders it necessary for collectors to reside within their respective districts, and therefore it will be impossible to execute the laws with propriety, even were it otherwise feasible, in vessels.

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The Rev. William Cosgrove, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility, nervous depression caused by these disorders. Desirous of benefiting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge. Address, Rev. Wm. Cosgrove, Feb. 27-3m 439 Fulton Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y.

CHILLS AND FEVER! CHILLS AND FEVER!—One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which has received the highest commendation from the press and the people, is Dr. J. H. Houghton's Stomach Bitters. Who would endure the tortures arising from this terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would have sleepless nights, burning fevers, and chills, alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger under a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their meals, and yet they are not relieved. None but the Stomach Bitters will procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1861.—PROSECUTORS.—The 33rd Volume of the Weekly Tribune commenced with the 1st of January. During the past year the Tribune has been obliged to devote quite a large proportion of its space to politics, but we shall soon be able to forego Political Discussions almost entirely, for months if not for years, and devote nearly all our columns to subjects of less intense, but more abiding interest. Among these, we mean to pay especial attention to I. EDUCATION.—The whole subject of Education, both English and German, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861, and we hope to elicit in that discussion some of the profoundest thinkers and the ablest instructors in our country. It is at our own hope and our resolve that the cause of Education shall receive an impulse from the exertions of the Tribune in the behalf during the year 1861.
